

Gondwana Game Reserve

Overview

Gondwana is a private game reserve in South Africa that holds the distinction of being the only fynbos reserve in the world that's home to free roaming Big Five game as well as endangered species like the Cape mountain zebra and black harrier among many others. Set on 11,000-hectares, its breathtaking beauty will soothe and delight you with its endless mountain views and green rolling hills blanketed in colourful fynbos. For a stress-melting getaway in one of the most beautiful settings in the country, visit Gondwana Game Reserve in South Africa and immerse yourself in the wild beauty of the natural surroundings.

Room Information

Kwena Lodge Kwena Lodge offers world-class game reserve accommodation with a modern and luxurious twist on the traditional Khoi-San dwelling – augmented with all the luxuries of a modern hotel. Each open plan Kwena Room is designed to make the most of the beauty of its surroundings with 180-degree views and skylights for star gazing. At night, keep warm next to the clay pot fireplace and laze in a deep bath upon arrival from an evening game drive. The luxury lodge accommodation facilities include a large pool, a chic open-plan lounge and bar, a spa and reception area with curio shop. Gourmet meals are offered in an elegant and intimate dining room set around open fireplaces, the outdoor boma or private outdoor dining spots. Bush Villas Enjoy your own luxurious bush home on a private Big Five game reserve with ample outdoor space to take in your natural surroundings in the comfort and ease of an open-plan design. This is a great alternative for families and groups that wish to have longer stays and flexibility to enjoy the surrounding Garden Route while using Gondwana as a base.
