

Pezula Resort Hotel & Spa

Overview

Located on the Eastern Head of Knysna on the exquisite Garden Route coast, just a 40-minute flight from Cape Town, the Pezula Resort Hotel & Spa is surrounded by rugged cliffs, ancient forests and sheltered beaches. With sweeping views of the Pezula Championship Golf Course, the Indian Ocean and the Knysna Lagoon, it is a haven of privacy and luxury. The core building houses a cigar lounge, champagne and whisky bar, gourmet restaurant, Zachary's, and two executive boardrooms. The award-winning Spa includes a 12m heated pool, gymnasium, sauna and steam room, nail bar, hair salon and nine therapy rooms. Guests have access to secluded Noetzie beach and activities including canoeing, nature trails, horse riding and tennis.

Room Information

76 stylish suites, four to a villa, and two ultra luxurious presidential suites with in-room dining facilities. Designed to maximize the views, the rooms incorporate elements of African art into their design and décor. The suites have individual climate control, satellite television, a DVD player, electronic safe and direct telephone. Each has a pantry kitchen with delicious deli snacks prepared by the pastry chef of the hotel's restaurant, and a well stocked drinks cabinet. Real log fireplaces are lit on request. The bathrooms are huge with oval-shaped calabash baths and wet rooms big enough for two. Beds are beautifully dressed with Egyptian cotton linen and guests are supplied with luxurious toweling gowns and slippers.
