

Londolozi Pioneer Camp

Overview

They awoke in an illuminated landscape. Unique, beautiful, peaceful and remote, this wild and silent wilderness is still the defining experience at Pioneer Camp. Cresting a gentle rise with elevated views of the Sand River, massive granite extrusions now stand sentinel over this elegant bushveld camp. The Old English indulgence reflects our heritage with an African twist. The influences are evident in the elegant cream interiors, silver teapots and Portmeirion crockery. Guest cottages are themed with historic memorabilia, telling a story of a bygone era and furnishing an environment of leisurely indulgence.

Room Information

A 500-year-old Riverine forest throws dappled light on the six exclusive cottages and provides a dramatic backdrop for the camp's celebration of the past. The tents are now just part of the family mythology, replaced by expansive private suites hidden deep in the riverine forest of Water Matumis and Ebony trees. With only six suites, Pioneer Camp offers an intimate experience and is truly a place to indulge the senses.
