

Kwandwe Ecce Lodge

Overview

Kwandwe Private Game Reserve is located in the beautiful and historically rich Eastern Cape along 30 kilometres of privately-owned river frontage, surrounded by 21 000 hectares/45 000 acres of exclusive, malaria-free wilderness. Overlooking the Great Fish River, the Lodge is masterfully contoured to blend with the magnificent landscape. Kwandwe means “Place of the Blue Crane” in Xhosa, and is home to a population of these majestic endangered birds. Kwandwe is easily accessible by private charters into Kwandwe airstrip just five minutes from Kwandwe reception, which is a leisurely 15-minute game-drive to Kwandwe Ecce Lodge. Kwandwe is a 2-hour drive (there is a chauffeur service) from Port Elizabeth which has a national airport. Kwandwe is also perfect for self-drive clients due to excellent roads. Guest areas feature a spacious sitting room with fireplace, dining room and bar area and a deep veranda with expansive wooden viewing decks overlooking rolling spekboom valleys with a backdrop of the distant cliff-faces of ecce shale. There is an inviting swimming pool and an intimate study. Morning, afternoon/evening and night game-drives in open game-viewing vehicles, guided walking and canoeing, bush sundowners and picnics on the Reserve, fishing, rhino tracking, visits to hides, archaeological, Battlefield and Historical Tours to Grahamstown and surrounds. Bush breakfasts/dinners. Scenic coastal flights can also be arranged.

Room Information

Six spacious suites feature bedrooms with en-suite bathroom, indoor and outdoor shower, separate w.c, twin hand basin, large veranda and a private deck. Interior design reflects natural textures in hues of burnt aloe orange, rust and olive. Furnishings combine clean, contemporary sofas with venerable old collectables from the area.
