

Ngala Main Lodge

Overview

Ngala Lodge is situated on 14 800 hectares/36 500 acres of exclusive game-rich Kruger National Park land, Northern Province, South Africa. The Lodge's spectacular setting is near the Kruger's Timbavati gate. Secluded in leafy woodlands, Ngala's guest areas include a spacious thatched sitting, bar and dining area with impressive open fireplaces, shaded swimming pool and sundecks overlooking a busy waterhole. Dinner is served either in the traditional African boma (reeded enclosure) or in the romantic lantern-lit courtyard. The lodge has a well-stocked Safari Shop. Twice daily game-drives in open game viewing vehicles and nature walks on the reserve are included in the rate. The excellent game viewing experience is complemented by other activities such as stargazing, bird-watching and moonlit bush dinners and bush sundowners (weather permitting). Specialist Safaris – Leopards @ Ngala, Tracking @ Ngala (additional cost).

Room Information

20 air-conditioned cottages with en suite bath, shower, twin hand basins, w.c and intimate veranda. One luxurious Safari Suite with en suite bathroom, separate sitting room, additional w.c, outdoor shower, large deck/veranda and private swimming pool.

Location: Ngala is the only private game reserve in the legendary Kruger National Park, one of the richest and most strategically important wildlife areas in Africa. The impressive dry riverbed of the Timbavati Private Nature Reserve in South Africa features islands of reeds, a bird-watcher's paradise. Colourful birds to look out for are the Southern Yellowbilled Hornbill and the Redbilled Hornbill. With their large, colourful bills and confiding nature, Hornbills are among the most conspicuous birds in African savannahs. UTF-8
