

Londo Lodge

Overview

Welcome to Londo Lodge, an exclusive beach & bush resort north of Pemba, Mozambique. Set on a peninsula surrounded by blue Indian Ocean waters and East Africa's finest beaches, this private boutique resort is hidden amidst lush virgin African baobab bush and abundant coral reefs. There are numerous activities such as snorkeling, diving, game & fly-fishing, bush walks, bird watching, mangrove river trips and sunset sailing on traditional dhows. A unique retreat of luxury in authentic Africa.

Room Information

Accommodation at Londo Lodge is an amazing combination of modern luxury with traditional building. Each ocean-view villa is built on a 7 meter high cliff overlooking the majestic Pemba bay. Octagon shaped, 75m² large, outside teak decking, louvered 3 meter wide doors and traditional bamboo & thatch roofing, spacious is an understatement. All villas are fitted with handmade UK mattresses, Belgian bed linen, in & outdoor bathrooms, handmade chrome taps and showers, draped mosquito nets and a/c units. Eclectic in design, the villas have a delicate look & feel where Moroccan art blends in with traditional Maconde woodcraft and Victorian mirrors.

Child Policy:

Children of all ages accepted.

Location: The Londo Lodge Resort can be found on a peninsula just south of the Quirimbas National Park in Mozambique. This Mozambique lodge has excellent views of Pemba Bay, which is the third largest natural bay in the world. The Quirimbas National Park consists of untouched bush on the mainland and a beautiful archipelago of tiny islands, including the ghost town of Ibo Island. This all is just north of Pemba, capital of Cabo Delgado. UTF-8
