

Coral 15.41

Overview

Coral Lodge 15.41 is a modern, African-style beach resort, which offers you the latest in luxury and comfort while maintaining that authentic feel of Mozambican pureness. The resort's design, by Dutch designer Edward van Vliet, incorporates the colors of its environment using wood and brightly-colored textures. These natural materials make the resort blend in perfectly with the surroundings. Coral Lodge 15.41's villas have been built on top of the dunes to allow guests to get the full benefit of the incredible views and the constant breeze from the Indian Ocean.

Room Information

This beach sanctuary comprises of just 10 luxury villas which tastefully blends luxury and comfort with the authentic feel of Mozambique style and simplicity. The design skilfully uses an elegant mix of wood and textiles to ensure the lodge blends in with its surroundings whilst incorporating the vivid colours of the area.

Location: The exact coordinates for Coral Lodge 15.41 is part of our name, i.e. 15 degrees south latitude and 41 degrees east longitude. The lodge is located in the north of Mozambique in an area called Veranda. Veranda lies at the tip of a peninsula and is only a short distance from Ilha de Moçambique (Mozambique Island), the former capital of Mozambique. After the civil war ended in 1992, Mozambique has enjoyed a stable political climate and a growing economy. Tourism is fast becoming one of the country's key resources, but the area around Coral Lodge 15.41 is still largely untouched. The sometimes rugged but unspoiled terrain and friendliness of the local people are a testament to this. Visiting Coral Lodge 15.41 is visiting a 5 star beach resort at the place where Mozambique is founded. This makes up for the right combination of learning about the culture and history of Mozambique and relaxing in it's beautiful nature. UTF-8
