

Jan Harmsgat Country House

Overview

The authentic relaxed atmosphere and elegant comfort of the old converted slave quarters and original wine cellar is a tasteful blend of traditional and contemporary style. Set amongst Pecan, Almond and fruit orchards. We are also famous for the production of a range of cheeses and preserves. Personal attention from owners Brin & Judi and their award winning staff. Multiple award winners for outstanding service in the development and inclusion of local communities. Awarded Fair Trade in Tourism SA trademark in 2005. In the heart of a region renowned for its wine estates, nature reserves and scenic beauty. 20 min from the historic towns of Swellendam and Montagu on the R60. 5 spacious character full bedrooms include fine cotton linen, heated towel rails, under floor heating and antiques. A remote two bedroomed cottage is also available. Jan Harmsgat's convivial charm, delectable cuisine and superb collection of SA wines ensure a truly unforgettable experience. Relax at the 14 metre salt water pool set in a citrus orchard or join us for a ride to our 'backlands' and experience the landscape and natural wildlife.
