

Little Mombo Camp

Overview

Little Mombo is built under the shade of some large shady trees and overlooks a wonderful floodplain that teems with game. The three guest rooms and the walkways that connect the rooms to the living area are up to 2m off the ground, allowing game to wander freely through the camp – but at the same time allowing for guest's safety. The dining room, pub and living area overlook the open plain in front of the camp and there is a plunge pool for relaxing in the heat of the day. Activities at Little Mombo include morning and afternoon game drives in open 4 x 4 Land Rovers. The game viewing in the area is excellent, and guests could see Lion, Leopard, large herds of Buffalo, Cheetah, Wild Dog, Elephant, Hyena, Giraffe, Wildebeest and Zebra. Access into this area is only by aircraft.

Room Information

The three guest rooms and the walkways that connect the rooms to the living area are up to 2m off the ground, allowing game to wander freely through the camp – but at the same time allowing for guest's safety. The three tended rooms are superbly furnished, spacious and well appointed and have en-suite facilities under canvas and an additional outdoor shower for those who enjoy a shower under the stars.
