

Marlin Lodge

Overview

Situated on the east coast of Southern Africa, Mozambique has a coastline that stretches for nearly 3000 km. The country covers an area of approximately 800 000 sq km, and its inland waters include a portion of Lake Malawi. The main dry season runs from April to November and during this time, daytime temperatures average 24oC. The rainy season is from November to March and temperatures average 27oC. The country's highest temperatures occur in the north around Pemba and west towards Tete. Three mainland national parks occur in Mozambique, namely the Gorongosa, the Zinave and the Banhine. Portuguese is the official language and is widely spoken in larger towns. Of the numerous African languages the most common is the Makua-Lomwe language. Sena-Nyanja is spoken in the centre and Tsonga in the south. Mozambique's local currency is the Metical, however US dollars and SA Rand are widely accepted.

Room Information

The inside of the private luxury chalets is constructed with more sophisticated finishes. These chalets are ideal for guests staying a longer period of time, as they offer more space and comfort. The Executive suite's sheer size is what makes them so breathtaking. This room is the perfect haven for the discerning traveler. Similar to the Private Luxury Chalets, the inside of the chalets is constructed with more sophisticated finishes.
