

Kanonkop House

Overview

Kanonkop Guest House in Knysna is an exquisite owner managed five star retreat situated on the edge of Kanonkop hill with uninterrupted views of the Knysna Lagoon and Heads. Knysna, the pearl of the Garden Route, is a town of spectacular scenic beauty nestled on the banks of a tranquil estuary and surrounded by lush indigenous forest and golden beaches. The town is perfectly situated to explore the rest of the Garden Route with it's diverse palate of offerings from hiking trails and forest walks to birding and game viewing. The Conyers family own and operate this luxury guest house - with it's four bedrooms each individually decorated by award-winning South African designers – and pride themselves on their personal service and attention to detail ensuring a truly memorable holiday experience.

Room Information

The sumptuous Paradise suite certainly lives up to its name - luxuriously appointed with original artwork and magnificently crafted furniture. The room occupies an entire third floor and has out of this world views, is wonderfully spacious and has a large king size sleigh bed as its focal point. The Sivuyile and No Matata suites are identical large and luxurious queen bedded suites that open out through double sliding doors to an expansive sundeck. The rooms have fantastic views over the garden and pool and out towards the Knysna Lagoon and Heads in the distance. The Sunbird room is a lovely double-bedded room which overlooks the beautifully landscaped indigenous garden.
