

Ocean Eleven Guesthouse

Overview

Hermanus is a quaint coastal town situated on Walker Bay on the Cape south coast of South Africa. Although the village is small it has a city-like infrastructure and, having been a popular coastal holiday destination for over a hundred years, there are a myriad of things to see and do. Hermanus is a beautiful 90 minute drive from Cape Town making it an easily accessible short-stay destination as well. Ocean Eleven offers guests luxury accommodation in Hermanus right on the cliff paths overlooking the ocean. The colonial style guest house exudes the grace and style befitting a destination which has the reputation of being the 'Riviera of the South'. You will be treated to a good dose of absolute luxury at Ocean Eleven.

Room Information

The three standard rooms are situated on the ground floor of the guest house. Two of these are in the old house and have the original floors, high ceilings and windows opening out onto the garden. The third is adjacent to the swimming pool, with French Doors leading out onto the deck. All three rooms provide en-suite accommodation with a shower. There is a wide variety of Deluxe Rooms, three of which are situated near the pool – either upstairs or on ground level. The fourth room has a separate entrance and its own private balcony. Finally, the fifth Deluxe Room is situated in the old house and has original floors, a walk-in dressing room and French Doors opening onto the garden. All are en suite with bath and shower. Both Suites are situated Loft-style in the old roof of the house and are spacious, air-conditioned and have en suite bathrooms that contain a bath and shower.
