

Tshukudu Bush Lodge

Overview

This is the “Place of the Rhino”. From five stars to the Big Five has never been more apt than at the luxurious Tshukudu Bush Lodge. Built high on a hilltop, the lodge offers sweeping views of the malaria-free Pilanesberg National Park. Pilanesberg National Park, which covers some 55 000 hectare, is the fourth largest in Southern Africa. This malaria-free park is perched on the eroded vestiges of an alkaline volcanic crater – one of only three such craters in the world. On its undulating hills and everlasting open plains, you can get a glimpse of the “Big Five”, an abundance of animals and over 360 bird species. When you visit Tshukudu, we ask that you leave all the trappings of city life behind - including your car. Guest vehicles can be parked in protected bays at Bakubung Bush Lodge - from where you'll be transferred to Tshukudu at 15h00.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations/Amendments are subject to the following conditions:

More than 60 days prior to the tour's arrival at the hotel, the agent has the right to cancel or amend the tour, or commit themselves to the number of rooms required.

45 to 60 days prior to the tour's arrival at the hotel, the agent has the right to cancel 10% of the rooms they are holding on that date, without any cancellation fee payable. If, however, more than 10% of rooms originally booked are cancelled, the hotel reserves the right to levy a charge equivalent to the full accommodation portion (including meals and VAT) for the full period of stay.

Location: A mere two hours drive north of Johannesburg and Pretoria and you'll find yourself in the tranquil heart of the bush. Pilanesberg National Park is home to the gargantuan shapes of Africa's giants - elephants, rhino and buffalo. If you're fortunate, you may catch a glimpse of the stealthy leopard or lion, stately king of the bush. Wild country indeed, but without the risk of malaria. UTF-8
