

Sun City Palace of the Lost City

Overview

In the heart of this ancient volcano, according to the legend, a great civilisation arose. The peaceloving nomads from the north settled in this lush green valley, where they built their spectacular Palace, surrounded by abundantly flowing waters and beautiful gardens. After an earthquake destroyed their home, the people fled and eventually, the Palace and its city became completely overgrown. Centuries later, a modern explorer stumbled upon this Lost City. The Palace was restored to its former glory, and re-opened in 1992 as part of the amazing Lost City development at Sun City. The Valley of Waves is open daily, from 09h00 until 18h00 in summer and 10h00 until 17h00 in winter. There is an astounding variety of adventures waiting to be discovered and enjoyed here.

Room Information

The Palace has 338 rooms inclusive of four deluxe suites: The King, African, Royal and Desert Suites are available on request. The King Suite is the epitome of regal luxury with hand-carved walls, frescoed ceilings and hundreds of customdesigned items adorning two bedrooms, lounge, two en-suite bathrooms, guest powder room, library, butler's pantry and balcony. All luxury suites also feature a sauna and jacuzzi bath, while the African Suite has an additional jacuzzi on the terrace. All standard rooms have entrance foyers, en-suite bathrooms, lounge or seating areas. Standard amenities include a carved armoire which contains the colour TV, safe, refrigerator and butler stations; a direct-dial telephone; radio; electric razor plug (110/220V); air conditioning, ceiling fan and 24 hour room service. All paraplegic rooms are fitted accordingly and are located on the first floor.
