

Madikwe Hills

Overview

The reserve was formed in 1991 in a unique alliance between local communities and private enterprises and involved the relocation of some 8200 animals (wild dog viewing is the highlight). Here the plains now teem with game, and a world of intrigue and majestic beauty wait to enchant you.

Room Information

Madikwe Hills consists of a Main Lodge with 10 suites and a private camp, Little Madikwe Hills Presidential / Family Suite, accommodating 24 guests in total. At the Main Lodge, ten ultra-luxurious glass-fronted suites complete with their own deck and private plunge pools offer absolute privacy and majestic views. The unusual, yet subtle 'Afrochic' décor integrates natural elements with colours highlighting Africa's ambience. Your suite has been designed for complete relaxation and comfort, with fireplaces, under-floor heating, air-conditioning, outside showers, romantic bathrooms and concertina glass doors that allow you to truly feel at one with the environment. The ultimate in luxury and privacy, Little Madikwe Hills boasts a 2-bedroomed Presidential or Family Suite with its own private land rover and game ranger, as well as personal butler to take care of your every need. A well-stocked wine cellar, gourmet kitchen with your personal chef and entertainment centre complete the picture. Two additional standard suites can also be reserved to form a completely private camp, which accommodates up to eight guests. A luxury is being able to set your own meal and game-drive times, making this the ideal exclusive family escape for children of any age.
