

Pemba Beach Hotel and Spa

Overview

The hotel boasts a Wellness Spa (from June 2007), a fitness centre offering the latest gym equipment and conference facilities for up to 200 delegates. Activities by arrangement include fishing charters, scuba-diving, sunset cruises, visiting the Lurio waterfalls and the baobab forest across the bay, where elephants have roamed for generations. This long forgotten sleepy town, formerly known as Porto Amelia, is steeped in colonial and trader history, with the islands of Ibo and Ilha de Mocambique, in the Quirimbas Archipelago, nearby. Only 240km from the border of Tanzania, Pemba is an ideal exploration destination, with prime fishing waters of the St Lazarus Banks about 100 nautical miles away.

Room Information

The Pemba Beach Hotel and Spa has 94 rooms, including 2 Executive Suites, 1 Presidential Suite and the addition of 32 Courtyard Rooms and 2 Royal Suites. All rooms are sea-facing with individual balconies, en-suite bathroom, mini-bar, satellite TV, direct dial telephone, coffee & tea making facilities, electronic safe, hair dryer and are fully air-conditioned.
