

Madikwe Safari Lodge

Overview

In the heart of the richly diverse and malaria-free 76 000-hectare (187 800 acre) Madikwe Game Reserve, North West Province, South Africa. Close to the South Africa-Botswana border. Interiors are in earthy hues from amber and rust to rich buttery tones. Guest areas feature a series of intimate sitting areas and shaded outdoor seating on the expansive covered decks. There are plentiful fireplaces both inside and outdoors with pizza ovens for fun dining. A covered outdoor living room offers beanbags and cushions for casual bonhomie. The nearby boma is the setting for evocative starlit dinners. An African safari shop is situated conveniently between the camps. Dozens of lanterns cast a romantic light over these intimate and simply sophisticated areas. Living areas are designed to be cool in summer and warm in winter. View Africa's most impressive wildlife on morning and afternoon/evening game-drives in game-viewing vehicles led by professional CC Africa-trained rangers. Excellent birdwatching with over 350 bird species. Book-filled libraries and interpretive centres add to guest delight.

Room Information

Three exclusive camps – totalling just 16 suites in all – feature a simple yet sophisticated Madikwe style. Each very spacious suite features a sitting area, a bedroom with circular fireplace, a spacious dressing area with personal bar, and a bathroom with twin hand basins, large bathtub, indoor and outdoor shower, and private w.c. French doors opening onto wooden decking lead to inviting plunge pools. The rooms are organic in design and woven copper screens add intriguing detail. Madikwe Safari Lodge is ideal for family safaris.
