

Ngala Tented Safari Camp

Overview

Ngala tented Safari Camp is situated on 14 800 hectares/36 500 acres of exclusive game-rich Kruger National Park land, Northern Province, South Africa. The camp's spectacular setting is on the banks of the Timbavati River, approximately one kilometre due west of Orpen Gate - one of the major gateways into the Kruger National Park. Guest areas overlook the Timbavati riverbed. The inviting lap pool, merging with the contours of the riverbank, is an ideal "waterhole" for guests to cool off. Open fireplaces and viewing decks overlook the riverbed. Small SafaTwice daily game-drives in open game viewing vehicles and nature walks on the reserve are included in the rate. The excellent game viewing experience is complemented by other activities such as stargazing, bird-watching and moonlit bush dinners and bush sundowners (weather permitting). Specialist Safaris: Leopards @ Ngala, Tracking @ Ngala (additional cost).

Room Information

Six deluxe spacious tents feature outdoor showers, baths, twin hand basins, separate w.c., overhead fans, electric blankets for winter, and wooden decks. Giant shade trees form a green and cool canopy over the camp.
