

Schulphoek Seafront Guest House

Overview

We are situated on the beautiful Schulphoek Bay, a protected sanctuary with spectacular sea views, a favourite spot for viewing Southern Right Whales from June to early December. Five minutes away from Hermanus town centre and within one hour of Cape Town International Airport. Attractions nearby are diverse and offer unique experiences. Come and relax in the stylish atmosphere where an eclectic mixture of old and new finds Africa merging with the sea. From the couches in the lounge, one can enjoy a spectacular view of the whales frolicking in the bay, or devour a good book and relax.

Room Information

There are seven double rooms, all en-suite, spacious and uniquely decorated. From large garden bedrooms with private entrances to the newly wed's favourite; a first floor suite with large sliding doors opening to spectacular sea views. Generous modern bathrooms enhance the comfort offering exclusivity with subtle touches of luxury. Choose from Superior, Standard and Family rooms.
