

Camp Figtree

Overview

Encircled by the lush folds of the Zuurberg Mountains, Camp Figtree is a remote private game reserve in the heart of the Eastern Cape wilderness, set between the renowned Addo Elephant National Park to the north and east and the Insome conservancy to the south. This luxurious lodge fuses the finest in comfort, style and service with an authentic African safari experience, offering elegant accommodation, spectacular 270 degree views and a range of activities focused on the region's rich natural environment.

Room Information

Camp Figtree's four Superior Suites three newly built Luxury Suites and Family Suite offer guests the unique opportunity to experience exclusivity, privacy, and the gracious style of Old World elegance. Relax in our magnificently positioned infinity pool on the edge of a cliff where the land drops away to the valley below, offering breathtaking views of mountain slopes cloaked with dense indigenous vegetation and the azure sky encapsulating it all.
