

Alpine Heath Resort

Overview

Many natural wonders and World Heritage Sites are easily accessible from Alpine Heath Resort including The Royal National Park, the historical Spionkop Battlefields, picturesque Tugela Falls, and Falcon Ridge. In addition to having a superb spa, Alpine Heath Resort offers a number of great dining options at five on-site eateries. Guests can enjoy the culinary delights of La Gruyere's Restaurant or the savoury toppings at the Pizzeria. The Coffee Shop, Pool Bar and Tavern offer some simple, no-fuss meals. Alternatively, guests can opt for self-catering meals, with delicious produce from the local village market. The resort has 100 luxuriously appointed, fully-equipped chalets offering panoramic mountain views from comfortable lounges, a fireplace for those romantic wintery evenings, kitchen, patio, satellite TV and three cozy bedrooms. Alpine Heath Resort is truly a highlight of the Drakensberg and it's what makes this unique berg village so popular all year round.
