

Cape Malay Cultural Experience

Overview

Experience a unique interaction rich in cultural diversity with the Cape Malay - the descendants of the original Malay slaves.

Itinerary

Enjoy a unique interaction and experience the cultural diversity of the Cape Malay community, descendants of the original Malay slaves. We start at the Bo-Kaap Museum in the heart of the Cape Malay Quarter where you learn more about their history and the preservation of their traditions in Africa. Your story-telling host will then guide you on an entertaining walking tour giving you insights into the historical and architectural landscape that adds so much colour and character to Cape Town's City Bowl. The highlight of this experience is enjoying an authentic home-cooked dinner at the gracious home of your host family. Includes return transfers from Cape Town city centre, Green Point and Sea Point, walking tour through the Bo-Kaap, traditional welcome drink and traditional 3-course dinner | Excludes own purchases such as spices, gifts and curios | Note – You are visiting a traditionally religious community and out of respect need to wear appropriate clothing. Guests are asked not to wear miniskirts and other revealing attire, and to avoid bare shoulders. Do wear comfortable walking shoes.

Collection: +/- 15h00 (Mon-Wed and Fri-Sun excl. Public Holidays and Religious Holidays)
